CMSA-Europe Spring Conference 30 March 2009

Hatfield Philips International Sponsors CMSA Event in London

Hatfield Philips International is proud to sponsor the 2009 CMSA Spring Conference “Commercial Real Estate Finance: Resolution in Today’s Market,” which will be held on 30 March in London.

CMSA-Europe’s Spring conference, held at Berwin Leighton Paisner LLP, Adelaide House, London Bridge, London EC4R 9HA, will be co-chaired by Tamara Box, Berwin Leighton Paisner LLP and Mark Miller, Hatfield Philips International, both of whom have helped to create a timely, well-balanced and thought-provoking program that reflects market issues.

WHEN: 30 March, 2009; 08:30-19:00 BST

WHERE: Berwin Leighton Paisner LLP, Adelaide House, London Bridge, London EC4R 9HA

WHAT: Among many topics, the one-day conference includes a discussion on the overall market, its outlook and an examination of European economies.

The UK/European property market outlook is also discussed, including the affect of government-support schemes on the real estate markets and the implication of good bank/bad bank.

Also don't miss various issues involving loan-level performance, including hedging structures and liquidity facilities.
